Fig. 14A

The screenshot shows a Windows XP desktop environment. A 'Setup' dialog box is open in the center, titled 'Microsoft succPoint Setup'. It contains a progress bar at 99% and the text: 'Microsoft succPoint Setup is preparing the InstallShield[R] Wizard which will guide you through the rest of the setup process. Please wait.' The desktop background is a dark blue gradient. Various icons are visible, including 'My Computer', 'Recycle Bin', 'MSDN Library', 'Microsoft Word', and several folders. The taskbar at the bottom shows the 'Start' button, several application icons, and the system clock displaying '9:54 AM'.

Fig. 14 B

The screenshot shows a Windows XP desktop environment. In the center, there is a large white rectangular window titled "mimeo.com™". Inside this window, it says "Exact Print™ Software 2.5". Below that, it states "Your online copy service" and provides version details: "version 2.5", "copyright ©1998, 1999, 2000", and "Mimeo.com, Inc.". A barcode is visible with a large arrow pointing right. At the bottom of the window, it says "fast-co-mimeo".

In the bottom right corner, there is a smaller window titled "Setup". It features the InstallShield Wizard icon and the text: "Mimeo Printing Service for WinNT Setup is preparing the InstallShield® Wizard which will guide you through the rest of the setup process. Please wait." Below this text is a progress bar showing "99 %".

The taskbar at the very bottom shows the Start button, several application icons, and the system tray area displaying "Document1 - Microsoft Word" and "Setup" as active windows, along with the date and time "9:55 AM".

Fig. 14 C

The screenshot shows a Windows NT desktop with a taskbar at the top. The taskbar includes the Start button, a clock showing 11:58 AM on 11/11/98, and several open application icons. The active window is titled "License Agreement" and contains the Mimeo logo and the following text:

Please read the following License Agreement.

MIMEO.COM, INCORPORATED

LICENSOR.
 These software products (the "Software") are licensed to you by either Mimeo.Com,Inc. ("Mimeo") or the software manufacturer, if other than Mimeo. In some cases, Mimeo has licensed from the manufacturer of the Software the right to distribute the Software, and is granting you a sublicense.

Do you accept all the terms of the preceding license agreement?
 If you choose No, setup will close.
 To install, you must accept this agreement.

At the bottom of the window are three buttons: "< Back", "Yes", and "No".

The screenshot shows a Windows XP desktop environment. On the left, the Start menu is open, displaying a list of applications and folders including 'My Computer', 'Set up', 'Network Neighborhood', 'Recycle Bin', 'Create a CD', 'CD Layouts', 'MSN Library - July 1998', 'ecuting', 'software UI', 'My First Project', and 'Burning CD'. The main area of the screen is occupied by a Microsoft Internet Explorer browser window. The browser's address bar shows the URL 'C:\Program Files\Mimeo.com\Mimeo Printing Service for NT\html\index.html'. The website content is in English and features a large 'C' logo for Mimeo.com. The text on the website reads: 'You have successfully installed the Exact Print™ Software. Now you need to sign-up for a FREE Account and receive a FREE Trial Offer.' Below this, it states: 'Mimeo.com is an innovative, timesaving Internet service that lets you PRINT, BIND and DELIVER your important documents and presentations directly from your computer.' It lists benefits: 'No more copy centers', 'No more waiting in lines', 'No more missed cut-offs', 'No more lugging heavy boxes', and 'No more hassles'. A section titled 'How Mimeo.com Works:' includes a numbered list: '1 Print to Mimeo' and '2 Choose a Mimeo Printer'. The desktop taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several application icons, and the system clock displaying '10:08 AM' on '7/19/98'.
